Label Printer

As a space-efficient alternative to traditional A4 desktop printers, the Label Printer provides easy set-up, intuitive operation, and high-quality report printing, improving laboratory productivity. Printing all critical test parameters onto an adhesive report label, the Label Printer helps streamline laboratory data processing. With a simple interface and compact benchtop design, the Label Printer seamlessly integrates with compatible Copley products for efficient data reporting.

Key Features

- Suitable for high-volume printing
- Minimal maintenance required
- High resolution adhesive report labels
- Simple user interface
- Compatible with Direct Thermal or Thermal Transfer Printer Labels*
- Ideal for space-constrained labs
